SOPHOMORES AT WORK.

1909 Teams Expect to Reverse Experience of Last Fall.

The Sophomores, realizing the importance of winning on Field Day, have determined to leave no stone unturned to gain a decisive victory over their present rivals. Men are being actively sought for the various branches of athletics, and a strong list of candidates has already reported for each team. Most of the members of last year's teams have returned and some promising new men have been found. With the lesson learned last year, and the hard work being done now, the prospects of 1909 are excellent.

Only twelve men have reported for track so far, but several more have expressed their intention to come out, and twenty candidates are expected at Tech Field before the end of the week.

Twenty-three men reported at the Gymnasium, Monday afternoon for the tug-of-war team. Coach Wonson, '07, who trained so successful a team last fall, and Manager Bundy took the men in hand and coached them on the means of attaining a maximum efficiency. After a short practice, the men were dismissed with instructions to bring out all possible candidates. Practice will be held every afternoon, except Saturday, at the Gymnasium, at 4 P.M., and a strict record of attendance will be kept.

The 1909 Football Team practiced Saturday afternoon at Tech Field, and Monday afternoon at the Oval. They were coached by McDonald, formerly coach for Worcester Academy and the Harvard Freshmen.

Twenty-two men reported for the team, as follows; Eaton, Godfrey, Critchett, Cook, M. Fletcher, Heard, Wentworth, Hunt, Sharp, Pope, C. Fletcher, Clark, Moses, Finney, Dow, Sherman, Foster, W. Kelley, Nichols, Hooper, Connelly and Dawes. A regular attendance will be required.

TECHNOLOGY CLUB.

The annual meeting of the Club will be held on Monday evening, October 8, at 7.45 o'clock. Reports showing the condition and prospects of the Club will be presented, and the election of officers for the ensuing year held. The following names have been sent in by the Nominating Committee, and have been posted: For President, James Flack Norris; for Vice-President, Francis Henry Williams, '73; for Secretary, Angelo Tilton Heywood, '06; for Treasurer, Augustus Herman Gill, '84; for the Council for Three Years, Arthur Tisdale Bradlee, '88, Howard Lincoln Coburn, '97, Andrew Daniel Fuller, '95, William Elton Mott, '89, Walter Elbridge Piper, '87.

Invitations have been issued by the Provost and Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania for the dedication and private view of a handsome new building recently erected for the Engineering Department. The dedication is to take place on the nineteenth of this month.

FRESHMAN ATHLETICS.

1910 Hard at Work in Preparation for Field Day.

The Freshmen, with the help and advice of the Juniors, are making strenuous efforts to get into shape for their first Field Day. All the teams are receiving excellent support, and the candidates are showing that they are out to win.

About twenty men have reported for football up to date, and though they lack something in weight, they make it up in speed and spirit. They will have every advantage of coaching and training.

Fifteen men reported at Tech Field for track practice Monday and about the same number yesterday. As these were the first two days of training, the work was very light, consisting only in a few easy jogs and practice in taking starts. It is too early to predict the future of the team, but several of the men are said to have interscholastic reputations, and a fast team is expected.

Candidates for the 1910 Tug-of-War Team reported for the first time Monday afternoon at the Gym. Manager Fitzwater, assisted by Webb, '08, gave the men preliminary instructions as to practice, but no actual work was done. The following thirty candidates reported: Amsden, Baker, Bartlett, Bowers, Brown, Burnham, Cannon, Cole, Elliott, Enneking, Fitzwater, Foote, Green, Hargraves, Harris, Howell, B. Q. Jones, C. Jones, R. L. Jones, Myer, Nagle, O'Neil, Page, Richardson, Robinson, Sawyer, Wohlgemuth, Wasserboehr, Wilbur, Williamson.

Practice will be held every afternoon at 4 o'clock, except on Saturdays, and regular attendance will be a material help in making the team.

HARE AND HOUNDS.

The first Hare and Hounds run of the season was held Saturday, Sept. 29, at Hyde Park. Thirty men entered; the Hares, Campbell, '06, and Clapp, '08, laid a trail of five miles through the woods north of Hyde Park. The order of finishing of the first eight men, was as follows; 1, MacGregor, '07; 2, Chapman, '08; 3, Newton, '07; 4, Gimson, '08; 5, Courtney, '10; 6, Ellis, '09; 7, H. Allen, '08; 8, Chipman, '07. L. Allen, '07 and MacGregor, '07, found the bags. The next run will be held from Tech Field Wednesday at 4.30 P. M., and will be short and easy. Munroe Ames, '08, has been appointed chase captain in place of Hunter, '08, who has left the Institute.

A pleasant caller at our office yesterday was Mr. Simeon B. Eisendrath, '89, Course IV., a prominent architect of New York, Chicago and Pittsburg. Mr. Eisendrath is stopping at the Touraine and renewing old acquaintances in the city for the first time in many years.

Beginning Tuesday, October 2, the General Library will be open until 10 o'clock in the evening, except on holidays and Saturdays.

TECH CHAMBERS.

Improvements Made During the Summer in Home of Many Tech Men.

Several important changes have been made in the Tech Chambers during the last summer that were designed to add to the attractiveness of the place for students of Technology. Another story has been added to the building, the whole dining room has been remodeled and four bowling alleys have been installed in the basement.

The regular plan of the rooms on the other floors has not been followed in the rooms on the seventh floor. They have been built larger, and over half of them have private baths. This adds to the Chambers one feature that has long been desired by many of their patrons.

Any one who ate at the Tech Chambers last year remembers the delay that was occasioned by the kitchen being in the basement. This has been rearranged this year, and the dining room and kitchen are both on the first floor. This will help very materially in the effort of the management to serve meals more promptly. The dining room has been still further altered, a lunch counter having been put in at which students can get their meals still more quickly and at a reduced price.

The bowling alleys are strictly first class and will add materially to the amusement features of the place, which already include a pool room, a reading room, a gymnasium and a swimming pool.

Every man will receive 10% of the value of the advertisements secured by him. The man who obtains the greatest money value of advertisements, provided it exceeds $100, will be given a prize of $25, over and above his 10% discount. Every man who intends to try will kindly see me about it as soon as possible, to obtain contract forms.

THE TECH wishes to announce that Mr. Willis Ranney, 1907, a former editor, will resume his connection with the paper.

The heart of man is far beyond our editorial ken. We can only wonder why babies torture kittens, why small boys are viciously cruel to each other, why girls say nasty things about their feminine friends, why women persist often in being so "cattish" to other women, and — shall we venture to add? — why the "Freshies and Sophs" should have a "mix-up." Perhaps it is all due to the lingering element of animalism that remains in us. The day is certainly too late for such a contest to make history of any good kind for Tech or for any institution.

Sophs and Freshies.

The sentiment of the day permits us to gaze with equanimity, even with approval, on a struggle between the Sophomores and Freshmen at the Tech Field. That is organized and controlled, after a fashion, by certain rules agreed upon. But a miscellaneous scrimmage of any sort can at least develop nothing more in the way of glory than a trivial brutality, discreditable to the successful class, and that only at an expense, perhaps, of some serious accident. If we stop to think, there remains no doubt that a broken bone, an injured knee, is too much to pay for a "corking good time," for, say, two hundred men, who can't find ways to amuse themselves. Stop to think.

Forty students of Lake Forest College refused to sign a pledge submitted by the faculty not to indulge in hazing, and were expelled from the college yesterday. Sixty students, after a mass meeting, decided to accept the manifesto of the professors.

FIRST SCHOOL OF SOCIALISM.

Ninety students started to learn socialism, Monday night, in New York, in a brownstone dwelling recently changed into the Rand School of Science. It was the opening night of the new school, the first of its kind in New York.

Prof. Franklin H. Giddings of Columbia has a Wednesday evening class of about 70 pupils. Dr. Charles A. Beard of Columbia is another teacher. Dr. D. S. Muzzey who directs the class in ethics, is a teacher in the ethical culture school. Algernon Lee, one of the teachers and president of the Rand School Society, is the editor of the Socialist organ, the Worker. Other well-known people, not in all cases well known as Socialists, are to give briefer lecture courses later in the season.
